1. Equality and Diversity Statement

Staple Hill Community Hub ('the Hub') aims to be an inclusive organisation that promotes equality and diversity, seeks to ensure that equality and diversity principles underpin all areas of its work and service provision, and is committed to pro-actively tackling and eliminating discrimination

We consider diversity to mean celebrating difference and valuing everyone. Each person is an individual with visible and non-visible differences and by respecting this everyone can feel valued for their contributions which is beneficial not only for the individual but for the Staple Hill Community Hub too.

It is unlawful to discriminate against people because of a protected characteristic:

- sex.
- gender reassignment.
- marriage and civil partnership.
- pregnancy and maternity.
- race (including ethnic origin, colour, nationality and national origin).
- disability.
- sexual orientation.
- religion and or belief.
- age.

However we recognise that people may experience discrimination for many additional social, educational and economic reasons such as their language, health, caring responsibilities, trade union activity, where they live, how they speak and whether they work flexibly. This policy will apply equally to all these circumstances.

Staple Hill Community Hub will not tolerate discrimination, harassment, bullying, victimisation, or abuse of people who are staff members/volunteers or of people connected with the services provided by the Hub.
